

KAID LATE HARVEST

From the splendid Syrah vineyards, parent to the renowned and much appreciated Kaid, the Alessandro family has selected only 1.5 hectares of land to dedicate to the production of an innovative and outstanding wine. The Kaid Late Harvest is the result of this entrepreneurial effort; a splendid wine in which tradition and innovative wine making have been combined to perfection.

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

Wine type: IGT red, Sicily

Alcohol content: 13% proof

Vine type: Syrah

Annual production: 4,000 bottles

Where produced: Contrada Madranova in the Camporeale countryside

Soil type: hilly, clayish with limestone, with an alkaline reaction

Altitude: 400 meters above sea level

Age of vines: 1989

Training system: Spurred cordon espalier

No. of vines/hectare: 4.400

Yield/hectare: 3.5 tonnes

Harvesting: by hand, early in the morning selected grapes are gently harvested and placed in baskets

Maceration: about 8 days in a temperature-controlled environment

Fermentation: about 12 days at low temperature

Malolactic fermentation: yes

Aging: 15 months in Allier oak barriques and 6 months in bottles at constant temperature (18°C)

Serving temperature: 10°C – 12°C

Suggested glass type: small tulip, for example, brandy baloon

TASTING NOTES

Colour: particularly intense and deep ruby-red, enriched with brilliant and lively notes;

On the nose: an authentic kaleidoscope of soft and refined notes of blackcurrants, wild cherries
in alcohol, plain chocolate, tobacco, cloves, black pepper, Mediterranean shrubs, all of which bring this unique bouquet to life;

On the palate: an authentic kaleidoscope of soft
and refined notes of blackcurrants, wild cherries
in alcohol, plain chocolate, tobacco, cloves, black
pepper, Mediterranean shrubs, all of which bring this
unique bouquet to life;

The finish: slightly sweet, with a generous taste of extraordinary long-lasting complexity, Kaid Late Harvest is a wine which readily reveals its subtle but exceptional character, inciting the taster with its innate and unparalleled qualities;

Best with: silky, harmonious, uniquely elegant, amply expressing the sun and fertile soil of Sicily, Kaid Late Harvest is an oenological pearl which charms by virtue of its exquisite refinement and outstanding gustatory pleasure.